> With the arrest of Matt Burts by Deputy Sheriff Grover the sheriff's office has rounded up all but one of the tough est gang of outlaws that has been in this country for some time. While train robbing has been their chief game, they would not have stopped at taking human lives to further their ends. It is ago was a victim of the gang. The trial Copper Queen store and Bisbee Dru of the men at Tombetone in Ju: e prom- Sue ises to bring out some very startling facts. It has not yet been fully determined whether the men will be taken States charge first or on that of the territory. The preliminary examination of Burts will be held in Tombstone the early part of next week. Grover and his prisoner are expected to arrive at that place Sunday or Monday.

The election of school trustee which occurs tomorrow does not seem to stir far we have heard of no one but John S. Williams as a candidate. Mr. Williams has been serving on the board for a tion of our public schools speak well for position than Mr. Williams. Beside being a father and having direct personal interest in keeping the standard of our school up to its present high rating, he is possessed of the requisite qualifications that recommend him for continnance on the school board.

Asthma's Clutch

The sufferer from Asthma is constantly a room is being swept, or when there is a bad odor, breathing becomes most difficult. Often it seems as though someone was clutching the sufferer by the throat with a terri-blegrasp. The sation is almest unbearable. The trouble sometimes lasts only a few minutes and again hangs on for many days. There is only one safe thing to do, and that is take Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. Just what this medicine accomplishes s shown by the following letter from Mr. N. H. Andrews, a prominent resident of Springfield, Ohio, who writes:-

W. H. Hooker & Co., New York: "Gentlemen.—It affords me a great pleasure to assure you that I have received both immediate and permanent relief from throat, bronchial and asthmatic troubles by using Acker's English Remedy, taken strictly according to directions. It is a blessing to
